JACKSONVILLE LIBRARY EVENTS

Ladies' Day Out @ the Library

Just for ladies, we invite you to reward yourself with a relaxing day, including a light lunch, at the library on September 10, October 8, and November 5! August's program included new "spa" tips from guest speakers about essential oils, hair styling, skin care, makeup, other beauty products, and fashion. Now you can sign up for Saturdays in September and October, which will cover diverse mental and physical health tips from experts, including self-defense, nutrition, meditation, therapeutic hobbies, and more. And to lighten your Christmas shopping stress, the November meeting will be a $5 & $10 Market with products from many of your favorite local merchants!

Pre-registration and a $5 deposit per program are required to ensure your place. Your deposit will be returned at the end of the program. Please join us and bring your friends!

Thank you to all our teachers, staff, students, parents and the entire community for a great start to the 2016-2017 school year. A special thanks to all those involved who have made the transition into the new Kitty Stone Elementary School a success. I truly believe that we have the best "staffulty" in the state of Alabama. Let's continue the momentum for the rest of this school year and make our district better each day. Go Eagles!
