

The Mobile Pantry is coming to Jacksonville!

WHAT: FREE GROCERIES! The Community Food Bank of Central Alabama will be distributing fresh produce and grocery boxes to families and individuals who qualify on a "first come, first served" basis.

WHO QUALIFIES: Anyone receiving or qualifying to receive SNAP/Food Stamps, TANF, SSI, or meeting certain income guidelines is eligible to receive food. Proof of need not required.

WHEN: Once every month on the last Friday of the month.

Next distribution: Friday, April 29, 2016

Time of event: 3:00 PM—7:00 PM

Ad- *Jacksonville Community Center
501A Alexandria Rd SW
Jacksonville, Alabama 36265*

First Baptist Church of Williams

Jacksonville Parks and Recreation Department

COMMUNITY
foodbank
OF CENTRAL ALABAMA

Additional Services

United Way's Family Stability Services

Family Stability Services provides assistance in:

- Locating safe, affordable housing for you and your family
- Financial coaching to help you gain control of your expenses
- Your student's school performance, working with school counselors, etc.
- Job readiness

For questions and assistance, contact United Way's Family Stability Services:

Phone: 205-458-2071

SNAP / Food Stamps Assistance with Feeding the Gulf Coast

Formerly called Food Stamps, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) helps families and individuals afford healthy food when times are tough and prices are high.

For questions and assistance, contact Feeding the Gulf Coast's SNAP Outreach Team:

Phone: 334-300-9205

Email: akirkland@feedingthegulfcoast.org

United Way's Community Health and Social Service Hotline

Need additional assistance?

- Food assistance
- Physical and mental health
- Employment support
- Support for older Americans and persons with disabilities
- Support for children, youth, and families
- Grief counseling
- Volunteer opportunities
- More

For information and assistance:

Phone: 2-1-1

Visit: 211connectsalabama.org