Calhoun County offers many shopping opportunities from locally-owned downtown stores to nationally known department stores and large retailers.

The Quintard Mall is an enclosed shopping mall located in Oxford. Opened in 1970 and expanded in 2000, it has 720,000 square feet of retail space. With anchor stores such as Dillard's, JC Penney, a food court and many other national retailers and specialty shops, you'll find the best selection of stores under one roof in the area. The mall also has a movie theatre, AmStar 12 Cinemas.

The Oxford Exchange is a 725,000 square foot retail center located off Interstate 20 at Exit 188 in Oxford. The Exchange opened in 2006 and has more than 32 stores and restaurants. Anchor stores include Target, Home Depot, Best Buy, Kohl's, Old Navy, Dick's Sporting Goods, PetSmart and Bed, Bath & Beyond.
