About CrimeStoppers

Central Alabama CrimeStoppers encourages members of the community to assist local law enforcement agencies in the fight against crime by overcoming the two key elements that inhibit community involvement: Fear and apathy.

Central Alabama CrimeStoppers began in May of 1997 from the efforts of WSFA Reporter Beth Jett and Montgomery Law Enforcement Officer Tony A. Garrett. Montgomery Police Chief John Wilson listened to their requests to start a Crime Stoppers program for the City of Montgomery. A couple of weeks later, Chief Wilson authorized Beth Jett to organize private citizens to develop a volunteer Board and Officer Garrett to develop guidelines. The program now operates as an independent organization. The concept has developed into a combination of efforts by local media, businesses, civic and social clubs, law enforcement agencies, and the public. Donations of airtime, newspaper space, social media, and reward monies have established CrimeStoppers as an effective tool to fight crime in the Alabama River Region.
