Press Release:

The City of Jacksonville has no confirmed case of the Coronavirus.  The Mayor and City Department Heads are continuing to meet and make plans to ensure increased precautionary measures are taken at City facilities and that the City can operate if the situation changes.  We are in constant contact with EMA and will keep citizens posted on any updated news via the City's website and Facebook page.