

April 26, 2019

In accordance with its Infectious Disease/Pandemic Policy, the City of Jacksonville, Alabama Council Meetings will be held through telecommunications until further notice.

During the 7:00 p.m. Council Meeting citizens have two opportunities to address the Council – (1) at the beginning of the meeting – “Public Comments Concerning Agenda Items”; and (2) toward the end of the meeting – “Public Comments for General Items”.

If you have any comments you desire to make during the meeting your comments should be sent by email to the City Administrator by 12:00 noon on the day of the meeting. Submit your comment(s) to agrant@jacksonville-al.org with the subject “Public Comments Concerning Agenda Items” or “Public Comments for General Items”. It is important that you include your name and address as they must be recorded in the official minutes. Only comments submitted with the name and address will be read at the appropriate time reflected on the agenda (<https://www.jacksonville-al.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/04/04272020-Agenda.pdf>). It should be noted that Council Members listen but do not respond to Public Comments made during Council Meetings.

Finally, Council meetings will continue to be live streamed on YouTube. The links will be sent via Twitter and Facebook the morning of the meeting.
